

Riff/Intro = G-C-G-C-G-D
G-C-G-C-G-D-G

Old Guitar

G C G
Old guitar who will play you

C G D
Who will play you when I'm gone

G C G
Old guitar who will hold you

C G D
Who will hold you in their arms

G C G
Song of mine who will sing you

C G D
Sing you when my voice is dry

G C G
Sing you with some understanding

C G D G
Let you float up to the sky

Em (Riff) C
Many times you brought me round

G D
Many times when I was down
Em C
you pulled me up, dusted me off

G D
and sent me back into the game
C
When I was blind and could not see

G Em
You seemed to play so easily

A
You helped me find the obvious

D
When I was all alone

G C G
Road of ours who will walk you

C G D
Who will walk you when I sleep

G C G
Through the fields of wild flowers

C G D
Till the ocean's at our feet

G C G
oh my world who will love you

C G D
When it's time to say goodbye

G C world of mine who

G C G
will ~~you~~ open up your heart

D G
so I can step inside

Em (Riff) C

A fathers gift to his son

G D
A mothers hopes and dreams

Em C
A brother's everlasting bond

G D
A true love's memory

C
The choices that we both have made

G Em
To spread the joy, expose the pain

A
A seeker and believer

D
Oh the songs that might have been

G C G
Old guitar don't be forgotten

C G D
In a dusty attic all alone

G C G
Behind boxes of holidays

C G D
That came and went so long ago

G C G
Old guitar someone will share you

C G D
Share you with some troubadour

G C G
With harmony in his finger tips

C G D G
And many stories to be told

(Riff)

Oh my story who will tell you

Who will tell you when I go

It may be one in a million

But it's all I have to show
